

Mr. DAVID BOLTZ, ALC'S 2021 VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Mr. David Boltz is the Adult Learning Center's 2021 Volunteer of the Year. His time with us has not been long but it has been impactful.

Mr. Boltz contacted the Adult Learning Center in October 2020. He was looking for a way to serve his community. Mr. Boltz worked for several years as a high school math teacher. He then moved to the private sector building a career within a local Fortune 500 company. His demeanor, attitude and experience made him a perfect fit for our ABE/GED® students; specifically, as a math tutor for those students preparing for the GED® Math test.

Mr. Boltz came with a purposeful approach. He met with teachers in online sessions and learned how to facilitate his own zoom meetings. He met with students weekly and made himself available over the winter break.

One of our students described his work with Mr. Boltz in the following manner:

“Mr. Boltz has been great! I can't say enough about his laid back but extremely effective style of teaching. His encouragement and patience have been instrumental in helping me to achieve my goal. The pace of his teaching style has also been very helpful. I haven't felt too overwhelmed by the amount of information and material he provides.

I'm happy to hear that he is being nominated for Volunteer of the year! He definitely deserves it! I owe all of my success so far to him and all of the other teachers and assistants that have worked with me. And for this, I am grateful.”

The ALC community is grateful to have a volunteer with both subject knowledge and a spirit of service. It is indeed our privilege to name Mr. David Boltz as our 2021 Volunteer of the Year.
